FEED FOR THE LITTLE ARMED MEN ROB BANK; KILL TWO

Victor Co.'s Offices at McKees Rocks, Pa., Held Up.

$5000 ESCAPED WITH

After Killing the Manager and Cashler the Robbers Escaped on Horses, Shooting Down the Street as They Galloped Away.

Pittsburg, April 6. - A sensational bank robbery occurred at McKees Rocks, a suburb six miles below Pittsburg. Employes of the Victor Banking company were preparing to close for the night, when four men appeared Two with drawn revolvers warned away pedestrians, while th other two went inside the bank and opened fire. The dead-Samuel Friedman, manager, killed with three bullets while trying to protect $5000 on the counters

Ignatz Schwartz, eashier, who was shot through the head; taken to Mc-

Kees Rocks hospital; died. Mortally wounded-Robert King, a citizen, shot down by robbers as they ran with the plunder, will live; Andrew Milko, mill workman, hit by stray bullet; Mary Enco, employe of bank, slightly injured trying to save Priedman and Schwartz, hysterical from

The robbers jumped on horses and scaped with the $5000. The Victor bank does a heavy business with the workmen from the plants of each town. It is a bank for foreigners and also conducts a steamship agency. Last Saturday was pay day at most of the works and there was about $25,-000 in the bank. Only $5000 of it appeared on the counters, however, the rest being locked up in the safes.

It was customary to keep the bank open until 10 o'clock for several evenings after pay day, but business being slow, it appears that Manager Friedman, who also acted as teller, and Cashler Schwartz decided to close for the night at about 8.30, Suddenly the two robbers entered the bank, walked up to the cashier's window and shot Schwartz down in his tracks. Then they grabbed the money, which they stuffed into bags slung over their

Friedman, who had been in the back part of the bank attending to the big safes, came rushing out of the bank after the men, and on the steps he was shot dead. Mary Enco, who had been employed as a domestic about the bank in the daytime, was in the neighborhod. She came running and threw herself on one of the robbers as he was about to shoot into the body of Mr. Friedman. The robber tossed her to one side and

The robbers' horses were tethered near the bank, for within two minutes, before a crowd had any chance to gather, the four mounted men were shooting down the street. "Get out or we'll kill you," shouted one to Robert King, as he stood in front of Green's hotel, King stood his ground, and in another second he was writhing on the ground with three builets in his body.

A little further along Andrew Milko. who had stopped to gape at the fast authorities of McKees Rocks are of the opinion that the robbe had been planned for some weeks and that it was to have been carried out last Saturday night, when the bank was fairly filled with money.
